

Magic Clown

The magician has a card chosen and claims to have a prediction. He turns the bag that was visible on the table face-first and the audience will see a black and white drawing of a clown. An instant later the magician extracts the drawing from the envelope and it will magically color itself instantly, also showing the miniature of the chosen card!

Colorful pocket prediction!

- The deck of cards is not provided.