

A Brush with Death - Pokerdeck

This deck was designed around the theme of art and death. Death is one of the most pervasive themes in art history. While many artworks celebrate afterlives in heaven or hell, death is most often referenced as grim reminder of numbered days, and a powerful motivator to live well while you can.

- 56 playing cards
- Printed on USPCC Bicycle stock
- 12 standard courts with custom faces
- Standard numbers and pips
- 2 duplicate Jokers
- 1 vanish gimmick card
- 1 duplicate card