

Little Thief by Victor Sanz and Ultrabello

Fiction: The king becomes a thief that moves his hand out of the card to rip the corner of the chosen card. H.V.A** magic. We know almost no one reads this. The best description here is the full uncut performance we've shot. Highly visually astonished.

Workings: A highly gaffed card handmade by Ultrabello that will make all the work for you. We hate to be like other companies but, we have to say it: no elastics (It has magnets).

Included:

- Gaffed mechanical card
- Humber envelope
- Custom printed card
- Corner ripper

Love from Ultrabello. All the way from MÃ¡laga, Spain.
