

Odd Fellow Madame Laveau the Soothsayer by Stockholm17 - Pokerdeck

BLUE TUCK, GILDED DECK IN METALLIC TEA GREEN

Stockholm17 presents unique addition to the Odd Fellow family: Madame Laveau The Soothsayer. This deck, inspired by the renowned New Orleans Voo-Doo Queen Marie Laveau, integrates her mystical practices into its design. Featuring voodoo, divination, chiromancy, and more, it's a blend of the arcane and the mystical.

Structurally, the deck mirrors a standard poker set, but with a twist: the court cards represent 12 of the 22 major arcana from the tarot, each linked to a zodiac sign and corresponding month, blending the worlds of astrology and tarot.

The deck's suits are each themed with a unique set of mystical or mysterious symbols:

- Hearts are adorned with astronomical symbols, representing celestial bodies.
- Diamonds feature celestial symbols, depicting spirits and angels.
- Clubs showcase the African Nsibibi pictograms.
- Spades are decorated with alchemical symbols, adding an esoteric touch to the deck.

Specs:

- 56 cards poker size
- 100% custom with illustrated court cards, Jokers, Ace of Spades
- Gold foil application on the faces (texts, symbols, and pictograms)
- Gold foil application on the backs
- Gilded in metallic tea green
- Tuckbox in pearlized blue paper, 2 foils, embossing and debossing,

cutouts

- 3D lens holographic sticker mimicking the crystal ball, with reveal card
- Wrapped in cellophane
- Printed by WJPC

Credit: photos by Richard Arturo