The Winner's Chip by N2G and Kaifu Wang

When magic meets traditional games, every play becomes not just entertainment, but a dual feast for the eyes and mind. We proudly present The Winner's Chips, meticulously designed and crafted by renowned magician Master Kai Fu. This is not just a magic prop that adds spice to gatherings; it's a tool that lets you shine brightly in front of your friends, transforming ordinary games into captivating "magic shows." Each chip is adorned with a unique design of rock, paper, or scissors, exquisitely crafted and highly appealing.

These are far from ordinary game chips; they are specially designed to give the magician an edge in the game of rock-paper-scissors, delivering unexpected delights and joy to the audience. Crafted from premium materials, they offer a comfortable grip, with patterns clearly visible, ensuring fairness in the game while subtly manipulating the outcome.
