

The Foolosophy of Conjuring (Softbound) - Buch

If you're seeking an engaging read that beautifully blends humor with profound insights, "The Foolosophy of Conjuring" by Joe Hernandez, a well-known magician and behavioral scientist, is a must-have. This unique book takes you into the fascinating world of magic, where deception and perception play crucial roles. By exploring the psychology behind illusions, the author skillfully reveals the essential elements of magic-misdirection, timing, and subtle cues.

Imagine reading about magic while gaining a genuine understanding of the mechanics that make it so captivating. With over 1,500 anecdotes, each page offers a delightful mixture of entertainment and knowledge that will significantly enhance your appreciation for the art of illusion. Whether you're an aspiring magician eager to improve your skills or simply curious about the psychology behind our perceptions, this book is a treasure trove of insights to engage and inspire you.

Don't miss this enlightening journey that prompts self-reflection on the nature of reality and illusion. Grab your copy of "The Foolosophy of Conjuring" and get ready to be spellbound by the enchanting world of magic!

Joe Hernandez is the author of Magic Babylon and Houdini: The Ultimate Trivia Compendium. He frequently contributed to the magic journal Apocalypse and produced magic shows at the state theater in New Jersey. He was a consultant to the yearly NBC show "The World's Greatest Magic." Joe has collaborated in producing many magic videos, including DVDs from Rene Lavand, Harry Lorraine, Gene Maze, Mike Gallo, Sol Stone, and Herb Zarrow. He has appeared on several public television shows performing close-up magic, including a solo show on WABC. Joe is a member of the Society of American Magicians and the International Brotherhood of Magicians and a monthly columnist for M-U-M and the Linking Ring magazines.