

Voodoo by Chris Congreave

A super commercial packet effect from Chris Congreave the creator of "Cloak" that's super easy to perform and will blow them away.

With two built in moments of magic, the ending is super visual, and the spectator's reactions are always fantastic!

"I like it, it's a real worker! Pop whatever you like mate with my name on it. I love it!!"

- John Morton

"Voodoo delivers the perfect mix of laughs and a killer ending! A must-have for any magician who loves big reactions"

- Wayne Goodman

"I rarely dabble in voodoo, but when I do, every head counts it's black magic with a comedic twist!"

- Lord Harri Harrington
